

Hi friend,

Winter has flown by for Team Kimochis-literally! From conferences and presentations to in-person trainings, we've been traveling and on the go. Spreading the word about what the Kimochis system is and the impact it can have makes all the flight delays and airport coffee stops more than worth it. This Spring, we'll be stowing away our luggage and settling in to continue helping our amazing Kimochis friends plan implementation and trainings for their schools. If you're looking to grow the use of Kimochis from classroom to classroom, reach out to our team. We're here to help when you're ready!

Stick to Positive Kimochis Practices with this Month's FREE Resource.

Spring can bring on some BIG feelings. With summer just around the corner, it can be tough for students to stay focused and consistent with their actions and reactions.

Download our new Kimochis Feeling Stickers to help encourage your kiddos to stick to Kimochis practices and aim toward positive interactions with their friends.
