

Hi friend,

The only way to start this month's update is with a BIG feeling we have here at Team Kimochis! We are so very THANKFUL for all of the hard work and devotion you put toward the social and emotional well-being of the kiddos you work with. Several stories have recently been shared with us displaying the positive impact the Kimochis tools and foundational language have had on students and school climates and cultures. With more Educator Tool Kits in the hands of people like you, together we can create a kinder and more connected world.

Don't have your Kimochis Educator Tool Kit yet? View our Tool Kits HERE to see which one is right for you and your students!
